SHOT WENT THROUGH HAT.

A Burglar at Elmhurst Had a Very Narrow Escape.

Another attempt was made early yesterday morning to break into the shoe store of Cooper & Co., at Elmhurst, but the would-be burglar was frightened away before he could make an entry, and left behind him a hat with a bullet hole in it, where a shot had been fired by a man who was watching him as he attempted to break into the shop.

The store was burglarized last Sunday night and about $20 worth of shoes removed. Since then Garfield Edwards has been on watch at the place, and early yesterday morning noticed a tall, dark-skinned man about the store. About 1:30 o'clock he made a noiseless onslaught on the door lock, at which Mr. Edwards leveled the shotgun he had thoughtfully brought with him and fired. The bullet passed through the man's hat, which fell from his head, and he disappeared in the darkness.

The police were notified of the occurrence and are at work looking for the mysterious stranger.

TO INSPECT THE TURNPIKE.

Streets and Bridges Committee to Look Over the Ground.

The members of the streets and bridges committee of the common council will meet on Monday afternoon at West Market street and North Main avenue and together with the street commissioner, and probably President Paine, of the Abington Turnpike company, will inspect that portion of the turnpike lying within the city limits, for the purpose of definitely settling just how much money will be required to place it in repair.

It is not known as yet whether the members will walk over or drive over the road, but they will probably walk. If President Paine goes along, an interesting wordy war, if nothing more serious, may be expected between him and Councilman James Grier, of the Third ward, who has, it is understood, secretly sworn a Corsican vendetta oath to be revenged upon him.

WILK AND ELLIN HEARING.

Alderman Howe Held Former in $1,000 and Latter in $300 Bail.

Louis Wilk and Eddie Ellin were arranged before Alderman Howe yesterday, the latter accused of larceny and the former of receiving stolen goods. Wilk was held in $1,000 bail, and in default was committed to the county jail. The Ellin boy was held in $300 bail. Wilk was accused of inciting the boy to steal and disposing of the property secured.

Silver knives, spoons and forks, valued at about $75, were recovered, which Ellin had taken from Gately & Fitzgerald's installment house, where he was employed.

Wilk claimed that he came into honest possession of the articles, when arrested Thursday afternoon by Detective Moir.

AN EXCELLENT RECITAL.

Pleasing Programme Rendered by Pupils of Miss Becker.

The pupils of Miss Salome M. Becker last night gave a recital at Powell's music warerooms, on Washington avenue. They were assisted in the rendering of the programme by J. C. Winkler, tenor, and Miss Irene Kann, and thoroughly pleased the fair-sized and very appreciative audience that was present.

The pupils of the school whose names names were on the programme were: Clayton Weber, May Miller, Jeanne Samter, Stella Tropp, Helen Chamberlain, Sallie DuBois, Retta Church, Kayburn Watres, Emma Frey, May Logan, May Hackett, Sue Ripple, Florence Murty, May Blanchard, Carrie Hitchcock, Harry Logan, Fred Gunster and Hazel St. Amant.

Several of the numbers given were excellently executed and reflected great credit upon both the pupils and teacher. Mr. Winkler gave a tenor solo and Miss Irene Kann sang two selections in a manner which earned her great applause.

WILL WARNER ARRESTED.

Mt. Pocono Man Acts in Insane Manner and Attacks His Sister.

Will Warner, of Mt. Pocono, was brought to the city last evening and taken to the central police station, as the result of acting in an insane manner and making a murderous attack upon his sister, seizing her by the throat and attempting to strangle her. Several men came to the lady's assistance, and Warner left her and turned upon them. He is a strong, powerful man and made a desperate resistance, it being necessary at last to beat him to the earth with a base ball bat to subdue him. A warrant for his arrest was issued and served, and he was brought here.

Warner is a former inmate of the Hillside Home, and left there about two years ago. He was very refractory and violent while at the institution.

A GOLDEN PRIZE.

Outing at Lake Lodore at Which You May Win $50.

At Lake Lodore, July 4, Bauer's superb band and orchestra will furnish the music for the dance in the great two-story pavilion, which will be completed before that day. Special attention will be given to catering. Broad board walks lead through the splendid grove and fine promenades continue from the pavilion to the lake with its beautiful boats and launches, safe and swift-going launches. Every excursionist will receive a coupon ticket, entitling him or her to a chance on $50 in gold, which will be awarded after the last train reaches the lake.

KINDERGARTEN COMMITTEE.

It Decided That Only Five Teachers Are Needed.

At a meeting of the kindergarten committee of the board of control, held last evening, it was decided to employ only five kindergarten teachers next year, instead of the eight who were employed last year, it being thought that the system of having two teachers in one room is an unnecessary expense.

The supply committee also met and went over the list of supplies at present in the supply room, for the purpose of figuring how much is needed for next year. No definite action was taken, however.

JULY 4 EXCURSION.

To Montrose by St. Brendan's Council, 243, Y. M. I.

BATHING POOL WOULD SAVE LIVES

THAT IS THE OPINION OF CORONER ROBERTS.

During the Inquest Last Night in the Case of James Daly, Who Was Drowned in the Roaring Brook, He Said It Is a Shame That This City Has No Place Where People Can Bathe with Proper Protection and Surroundings—Verdict That Was Returned by the Jury.

Moved, no doubt, by the fact that two little lads had met their death this week from drowning, owing to a lack of proper bathing facilities, Coroner J. J. Roberts last night, in addressing a coroner's jury in the case of little James Daly, said that in no city in the country was there such a shockingly low state of public opinion on this question as in this city.

"It's a shame," said he, "that this large, influential city, has not place where the children and older people may bathe with safety. Some people may consider that a child's life isn't worth very much, but I consider that it is worth just as much as a grown person's."

"I have this week seen the bodies of two little boys who have been drowned in the Roaring Brook, and I have been very much affected by it. I think that the city should provide a swimming pool with a competent paid-instructor in charge who could teach children how to swim. If councilmen or park commissioners don't want to build such a place, the people should insist that one be constructed."

Last night's inquest in the case of James Daly was conducted in the arbitration room of the court house. The only three witnesses sworn were John Nallen, William Lyons and Thomas Flaherty, the three young men who went to the scene and helped take the boy's body from the water.

The coroner said that young Lyons was deserving of a medal for the prompt and heroic way in which he dove into the water after the body.

"The city should create a fund for the purchase of medals," said he, "to be given persons who risk their own lives in an attempt to save the lives of others."

It appears that the water in the dam in which the boy was being heated at times by the waste water coming from the blast furnace. The coroner's theory is that the boy, while bathing in this warm water, suddenly struck a spring of intensely cold water, thus causing a cramp. The jury brought in the verdict after the body.

"We, the undersigned jury impeached to inquire into the death of James Daly, find that said death was caused by accidental drowning, and we urge upon the park commissioners the pressing need of the immediate construction of a bathing pool in Nay Aug park, that the children of the city may have a safe place to bathe in."

An inquest into the death of Jacob Rauner, the other lad who was drowned, was conducted yesterday afternoon in the office of Alderman Lentes, in South Scranton. The jury found a verdict that the boy came to his death as the result of the accident and suggesting that means be taken in the future to protect more fully the lives of children who go bathing.

TRASK-CORNELL MARRIAGE.

Ceremony Was Performed Thursday at Newburg, N. Y.

On Thursday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cornell, on the New Windsor road, near Newburgh, N. Y. T. C. Trask, of New York city, was married to Miss Mary E. Cornell.

The house in which the wedding was solemnized was built more than a half-century ago by the bride's grandfather, Albert Ritchie and Miss Todd, of New York, were best man and maid of honor. The Rev. J. Y. Dobbins, of Montclair, read the marriage service. Mrs. Donald McLean, of New York; Professor and Mrs. Duell, of Lakesville, Conn.; Mrs. W. B. Plumley, Mr. Trask's mother, and Mrs. Ruth Powell, of this city, were present.

Mr. Trask graduated in the class of '88 from Lackawanna and from Yale university. He is a teacher in a New York high school.

PROF. SCHIMPF SLATED.

Will Be Recommended for Promotion in High School Faculty.

The high and training school committee of the board of control met last night and decided to promote Professor William Schimpf, of the High school faculty, to the position of head instructor in mathematics, lately held by Miss Anna Greig, who has just resigned. Professor Schimpf was formerly the assistant instructor in mathematics.

Professor H. Kemmerling, principal of No. 25, will be promoted to the position formerly held by Prof. Schimpf. Events decided to leave the rest of the High school faculty just as it has been during the past year.

It must not be understood for a moment that this action of the committee was unanimous. It was not, the objector being Mr. Gibbons, who favored Professor A. H. Jordan, believing that he should be promoted instead of Professor Schimpf.

WANTS CITY TO BUILD BRIDGE

D. W. Vaughan's Plan to Settle Boulevard Dispute—Believes City Should Have Its Own Road.

Select Councilman Vaughan, of the Nineteenth ward, believes that the only way out of the Elmhurst boulevard difficulty is for the city to build a road of its own in Nay Aug park and a new bridge across the river at this end in view, he will introduce a resolution at the next meeting of select council, referring the matter to the parks committee in conjunction with the city engineer for consideration.

In the first place, Mr. Vaughan stated yesterday that he doesn't believe the proposition of the Boulevard company to sell its right of way through the park and its bridge to the city for $17,500 should be considered.

"Now, to start out with," he said yesterday, "I don't think that bridge is safe. The iron columns on which it is supported rest only on the natural rock and not upon a regularly constructed foundation. Many persons are content to judge have said the bridge is unsafe."

"I believe that the city can, and should, construct a road of its own through the park entirely separate from the Boulevard company's road. It could start from Arthur avenue, a few feet wide, and run along the embankment of the river, and could run along the side of the embankment or cliff about twenty feet above the present boulevard."

"My plan is to construct a pretty good bridge or culvert across the falls, about 100 feet above the present bridge, and to let the road connect with this and run up to the old railway bed on the other side of the park. By this means we would have nothing to do with the Boulevard company's road, and we would have a road of our own through the park. That's the best solution of the whole difficulty."

"I believe that this road and bridge could be constructed for considerably less than $17,500, which the Boulevard company wants the city to pay for its right of way and franchise. Wait till we get this thing talked up in council."

CYCLONE IN MONROE.

Damage to Property by High Winds Narrow Escape of Jacob Gans.

Special from a Staff Correspondent.

Stroudsburg, June 29.—A small cyclone struck this county last evening. The storm was especially strong in this town and East Stroudsburg. Many trees and fences were blown down and several had a narrow escape from serious injury. The storm was accompanied by a fierce wind and came up very suddenly. The storm passed over the river at the Water Gap into New Jersey. Reports from the west end of the county received show that the storm was severe in that section. Trees were uprooted and fences were blown down in large numbers. The fact that little or no rain fell saved the Stroudsburg crops. Between McAllemy and Saylorburg the storm was especially severe. So thickly was the road covered with trees and fences that the supervisor had to get a force of men to open the road. At Elberon a large spruce tree was lifted up and hurled some feet away by the violence of the wind. At Water Gap, Shawnee and other villages many trees were blown down.

Jacob Gans, a merchant of this town, had a narrow escape. The wind lifted a cupola of the Kitson residence on Main street, and whirled it within an inch of Gans' head. A peach tree in the garden of James Davis was blown down, just grazing Mrs. Davis in its descent. Phones and electric light wires were blown down in several places.

LEHIGH VALLEY EARNINGS.

Philadelphia, June 29.—The May statement of the earnings and expenses of the Lehigh Valley Railroad company for May, 1900, shows an increase over May, 1899, of $127,574; net earnings, $41,025; decrease over May of last year, $41,254; gross earnings for six months ending May 31, $1,914,550; increase over May last year, $174,367; net earnings, $1,805,084; increase, $130,808. The gross earnings of the Lehigh Valley Coal company for the month of May were $1,665,082; increase over May of last year, $50,943; net loss, $40,987; loss in May, 1899, was $43,897. For the six months the gross earnings were $8,518,923; increase for month of May, $1,665,082; net earnings for month of May, $1,624,095; for five months ending May 31, 1900: Gross earnings increase, $5,746,300; expenses increase, 3,209,600; net earnings increase, $1,536,700.

PENNSYLVANIA EARNINGS.

Philadelphia, June 29.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company today issued the following statement giving a comparison of earnings and expenses for month of May, 1900, and for five months, ending May 31, 1900, with same periods of 1899: Pennsylvania railroad, lines directly operated, month of May, 1900: Gross earnings, increase, $1,167,790; expenses increase, $620,093; net earnings increase, $547,697. For five months ending May 31, 1900: Gross earnings increase, $5,746,300; expenses increase, 3,209,600; net earnings increase, $1,536,700.

HONORED GUESTS OF THE MACCABEES

RECEPTION GIVEN TO THEM BY SCRANTON TENT.

Several of the Most Prominent of the Maccabees Officers Were Present and Delivered Addresses Which in the Main Pertained to the Work That Is Being Accomplished by the Order—Guernsey Hall Thronged. Reception Followed by a Lunch and a Social.

Last night marked an important event among local members of the Knights of Maccabees, a reception and social being given in the Guernsey building, on Washington avenue, by Scranton Tent, No. 253, in honor of the great camp officers, who were present in the city.

Several of those prominent in Maccabean affairs throughout the state were among the guests last night. Major T. H. Lowry, of Pittsburg, great commander of Williamsport, past great commander of this state; Great Record Keeper W. E. Blaney, of Oil City, and Mrs. E. E. Brown, of Bradford, Pa., commandress of the Ladies' auxiliary to the order, were the guests of honor.

At 8 o'clock the main hall was thronged with members of the order and their families, who had attended, despite the inclemency of the weather. An elaborate programme was then rendered, being opened by a march by the St. John's Convent orchestra. Chairman of the evening P. J. O'Hara made an address of welcome, greeting the visitors in a few brief, happy words.

Mrs. Lewis gave a very enjoyable vocal solo, and Past Commander Watson was introduced to the audience and spoke on "The Fraternal Benefits of the Order." He explained the purposes and tenets of the order, and spoke of the general advantages derived from membership.

The two Harris children gave several enjoyable specialties, and the Misses Grace Bowle and Van Buskirk then gave an instrumental duet. Major Lowry was next introduced to the audience as the great commander of this state, and gave an interesting talk, speaking principally about the Knights of Maccabees, their duties and principles. Major Lowry is a well-known oil producer of Western Pennsylvania, and is a veteran of the Civil war, having fought his way up to the position of major from the ranks. He is one of the best known and most popular officers among the Knights of Maccabees.

At the close of his speech he was greeted with hearty applause and the Green Ridge Trio, three young ladies, then rendered several selections. Mrs. E. E. Brown, of the Ladies' auxiliary, now took the rostrum and told the audience of the work done by the Lady Maccabees.

Great Record Keeper Blaney gave an address, speaking in the same strain as those before him, of the beneficial results of membership in the order.

A selection by the orchestra brought the programme to a close, after which all present adjourned to the banquet room, where a lunch was served.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of: Chairman, Lewis Hughes; J. J. Collins, H. S. Cramer, A. P. Merrill, J. M. Caplan, J. A. Hutson, J. S. Roach, F. G. Gilbert, P. J. O'Hara, S. D. Van Buskirk, T. P. Wendover, secretary.

Dancing was then indulged in and the light fantastic tripped until a late hour.

The Maccabees' society is a fraternal and beneficial organization offering among its inducements both life and disability insurance and sick benefits. The different local divisions of the organization are called tents and there are tents located in Scranton, Clark's Summit, Parsons, Pittston, Wilkes-Barre, Hazleton, White Haven, Ashland, Shamokin, Honesdale and months other towns of this region. It has a membership of 450,000 in the United States and 30,000 in Pennsylvania.

They will be accompanied by a number of local Democrats, including Recorder of Deeds Frederick Warnke, Controller's Clerk John W. Howell, Colonel Herman Osthaus and F. J. Williams.

FIGHT OVER A DAM.

Farmers of Quemahoning Valley Fear a Johnstown Flood.

Philadelphia, June 29.—A special from Altoona says: Farmers of Quemahoning valley are armed and guarding a point that has been selected by the Cambria Steel company for the erection of a dam four miles long and having a depth of seventy-five feet at the breast.

The farmers declare the dam will be a menace to public safety and decrease the value of their lands. The property owners below the proposed dam claim they will be in constant danger of a repetition of the Johnstown flood disaster. A clash between the civil engineers and the farmers is expected at any time.
